"Brethren," said the Leadville clergyman, as he breathlessly entered the pulpit twenty minutes late, "I know I'm behind time, but here is my excuse: I had a flush royal and Deacon York had four queens, and though he bet low, I knew he'd put his entire pile in, and I couldn't bear to break up such a good thing by calling him, so I stayed and scooped his pile. Can you pardon me for the delay?" And the congregotion shouted "Aye!" and gave three cheers for the preacher, and then the services were begun.

M. Louis Blane is not only a great orator, but he has a charm of manner, is exquisitely courteous, and has a delicate social conscience. He is not wealthy, having only enough to keep up in Paris a modest establishment furnished in the massive English style. The dead wife which he loved so much was attached to her larea and penates, and took to France the furniture of her London home where ahe and M. Blane passed the happiest years of their married life. For her sake he clings to the heavy mahogany chairs and tables, the spacious bookcases and sideboards which they brought with them from England.

The projected reorganization of the Spanish army will largely increase its numerical strength when it is fully mobilized. The infantry will comprise more than 310,000 men, while the other arms of the service will be able to muster at least 100,000 more. The total strength of the Spanish army will therefore amount to over 400.000 men; whereas as at present or-000 men; whereas, as at present or-ganized, its war establishment, includonial troops, barely exc

Land in certain parts of France appears to be lying idle for want of hands to cultivate it. The price of manual labor in the Cote d'Or has become so great that farm lands, and in some cases vineyards, are for the time neglected altogether. Higher pay is to be had in towns, in pursuits that are not so laborious as work in the vineyards, which requires laborers to be at their posts early and late.

A gentleman not unknown to literary circles was present at one of the Pope's receptions. The holy father approached him and said: "You are an American? Are you a Catholic or a protestant?" "Holy father," replied our friend, "I am neither a Catholic or a Protestant. I am a journalist"

THE INSANITY PLEA.

It having come to the ears of J. H. Noyes, the leader of the Oneida Commity, that he was to be called as a witness to prove the insanity of Guiteau, the assassin, he addressed a letter to Mr. Scoville, in the course of which he expressed himself as follows:

I do not believe in his insanity, and I do not believe in his insanity, and I recollect no act or symptom of insanity in his life while under my observation. I think that he was born with a special genius for mischief, and has had a real inspiration for it all his days; but that is not saying he is insane, unless we also call natural genius and inspiration for good things, such as invention, music, etc., insanity. I understand insanity to be unsoundness—disease of the brain; and I do not think that Guiteau has that, any more than bears and lions have it. any more than bears and liens have it. With these views and the memory of my sore experience of your client, I am cfraid I would have to testify strongly against your main plea, and perhaps should be the means of send-ing him to the gallows.

We hope that the day will come when the insanity plea will be treated more in accordance with the opinion expressed above. The judicial ermine is sadly smeared with the success of this insanity plea.

DEMOCRATIC VERSATILITY.

The Index says that D. R. Sessions. temporary editor of the Eureka Sentinel, is the author of Carson corres pondence to his paper signed Farmer Treadway. Mr. Sessions seems to furnish a satisfactory instance of Democratic versatility. Elected Democratic Superintendent of Schools in a Republican year, he has been pre sumably an adviser of our Republica State financiers, and at the same time the properly constituted Cerberus by law at the door of the School Fund vault. In July a believer in State Solvency, in November a confessor of coming bankruptcy; In October an humble and unpretentious Director of the State educational interests; In November a gorgeous full-fledged Democratic editor, seated upon a lofty tripod, and writing letters signed by a Republican to his estimable paper. For the space of four months this might be called a variegated experience. It is rumored that Mr. Sessions will next year be a c-nd-d-te for -

EDITORIAL NOTES.

W c publish to-day Rev. W. R. Jenvey's explanation of a matter which called out a lengthy screed of abuse from the Austin Reveille. The Reveille published the explanation some days ago, and is no doubt ashamed of its attitude in the matter, so much so that sixty per cent of the usual vote. The carried both houses of the Legisloture it does not attempt a fair correction. probibitionists have drawn at least it does not attempt a fair correction. The inference would seem to be that the Reveille has swallowed so many camels that his moral palate now finds its only stimulant in straining at - a gnat diet.

Harrison, the "boy preacher," now running the revival business in San Francisco, plaintively remarked three weeks ago: "Sometimes I think I shall not die, but when my time comes, angels will come and place me under their wings and bear me gently away." We have heard of a wood tick under a jack rabit's ear, but neves before of a boy preacher under an angel a arm.

There is considerable complaint about the short-hand reporter's bill of $915, and in regard to the cost and result of the recent examination generally. The bill entire amounts to about $70 per day, from the beginning of the examination to the commence ment of arguments. Good wages.

A few short-hand reporters' bills will speedily offset the gigantic labors of our County Commissioners while sitting as a board of guessers on the value of property in the county.

MILWAUKEE, November 9. At midnight 161 towns, and the city of Milwaukee at 10:30, gave a net Democratic gain of 7,604. Chairman Anderson of tae Democratic State Central Committee, claims the election of the Democratic State ticket. The Republican leaders are surprised at their losses, but do not admit the loss of the State. The Prohibition ticket has defeated the Republicans, if they are defeated, and their vote is probably 15,000.

[SECOND DISPATOH.] MILWAUKEE, November 9-1 P. M. One hundred and ninety-one towns and cities, including Milwaukee and embracing two-fifths of the State, with interior Republican precints to hear from, give a Democratic gain. #### Damage by the Mississippi Ploods. Quincy, Ill., November 9.

The water recedes here very slowly, and it will be several days before such branches of business as have been in errupted can get back into their natural grooves again. All the open country lying between the north end of the Sny levee and the south of Quincy is to be leveed as soon as the work can be done, and the damaged levee is to be repaired. Many estimates have been made as to the amount of damage done by the flood, but the following are the most accurate: In Warsaw Drainage District, 18600,000; in Indian Grove District, 2750,000; in Sny Island District, 21,000,000; in Quincy Bay and the Baldwin, and seven other persons. #### Buried by a Falling Building.

NEW YORK, November 9. Early this morning the three-story tenement, on the corner of South Fifth avenue and Grand street, fell in, burying its occupants in the ruins. The fire department, with the assistance of citizens, up to 9 o'clock had extracted five victims. Two were dead, the others seriously injured. How many were in the building at the time of the accident is not known. The removal of the debris is being pushed with all possible speed. The ground floor of the building was occupied as a liquor store, and the upper portion by tenants. Mary Bold and John Rudolph, with his four children, have been taken out, slightly injured, and all sent to the hospital. The firemen have taken out the dead bodies of Francis Kraup and son. Catherine Baden was also taken out, fatally injured. The whole fire department is exploring the ruins.

The follies men sometimes perpetrate are fairly illustrated by the figure of a man balascing a feather on his mose, but the man who wastes his time in such employment is little worse than he who wastes his money on high priced custom clothing when ready-made garments of equal merit are obtainable here at much less than cost. If you need a rubber coat or a winter suit, or any other garment for man or boy, why don't you go to the White House before you rashly isvest elsewhere! Perhaps Abratams can give you some "points" about clothes in general.

The Gazerre, publishes the follow ing by request, as an explanation of a wanton attack upon Bishop Whitaker and his excellent "school for girls," by the Austin Reveille. The attack was entirely gratuitous and groundless, but the GAZETTE cheerfully gives the explanation a circulation which the assault will never get, in order that the malice, which animated the original charge may be disarmed:

EDITOR AUSTIN REVEILLE: In a recent article commenting upon a fair given by the "Delta Pi Society" of Bishop Whitaker, School for Girls, you have read us quite a letter upon sistency." It numbers seven of the best girls of the State. Your ownbest girls of the State. Your own Vienna Dollarhide is a sample. These girls, wishing to have a social evening and to make a little money for class purposes, determined to hold a little fair and festival. This was approved by the entire faculty, and was under the supervision of the officers of the school. This entertainment was strictly by and for the school was there.

The girls began their entertainment about seven o clock in the evening and closed it sharply at nine. They, and they alone, constituted the buyers and the sellers. They had no grab bags, no fishponds, no oil paintings no fine embroideries, no laces.

Above all things, there was no raffling, or anything which by any distortion could be made to resemble raffling. They had nothing that could be ratifled, if they had so desired. The ice cresm was made at the school, by members of the school; this was sold at the exorbitant price of ten cents a dish. Many of the girls had made pretty little neckties and bad donated hem to the fair; these were sold at them to the fair; these were sold at prices ranging from twenty-five to fifty cents. The "oil paintings" were pretty little Christmas and birthday cards which the girls themselves had painted. The dancing was done by the girls, the music being furnished by the girls. The total receipts, and they were clear profit amounted to they were clear profit, amounted to thirty-two dollars.

When you know that there are 56 scholars and five teachers belonging to the school, a simple arithmetical calculation will show you that each scholar spent about fifty two cents, four and thirty-six sixty-"oneths" of a This certainly is not running bigh." The whole entertainment was of the most simple and proper and unostentatious character. Nothing could have been more unde serving of criticism. The reporter of the Evening Gazette, knowing of the simplicity of the entertainment, and the exclusiveness of its character, being a true and whole-souled friend to the school, wrote the article, which called forth your article, in a pleasant spirit of banter, and we all took it as such. The success of this article, in the way of merriment, recalls to ones mind the success of a similarly written one in The Nation in reference to Lieutenant Flipper. The article designed solely as pleasantry was taken seriously, and called out many homilies in reply. E. B. Parson, one of the Verdi car robbers, has been pardoned and restored to citizenship. Parson was convicted and sentenced to the prison for twenty years, his sentence dating from September 25th, 1870, nearly twelve years ago. He escaped in the break of 1871, and was at large about four years, spending the time in Michigan and Utah. He was induced by the girl he loved to go to San Francisco, where Ben Lackey picked him up and returned him to Carson. It is said that Parson's conduct during the time he was out was good, and when he was returned to his cell, much sympathy was expressed for him. Parson has had a long and bitter experience of prison life, and he ought to show his friends and the people that the Board acted wisely in restoring him to liberty and his rights. Squires and Cockrill are the only two left in prison of the daring band. Jack Davis has gone where there is no Geiger grade or "Dead Man's Point," and the rattle of the owncord cosen will gladden his robbers, has been pardoned and re-

Hale Bros. & Co.

Respectfully ask the attention of the people of Nevada to their advertisement in the WEEKLY GAZETTB. They request each and every family to send for samples, feeling satisfied that no establishment west of the Rocky Mountains can compete with them, as they import all their goods from the east direct; have five stores on this coast pay cash down for all they purchase, and sell for cash. Send us a trial order.

Notice.

S TO THERE BEING FIVE OR SIX Hundred dollars of Mary A. Pine's septe property in my hands, it is false. There so only forty dollars of her separate money into the mare she speaks of; the balance aid for her; and as to the Jack horse, I paid as sire of him, and all the expenses of the sing and breaking of him. As to the colt, or six months old, I paid the sire of said it, and taxes on all of said stack. And as the buggy and harmers, she never paid a olt, and taxes on all of said stock. And as at the buggy and harmess, she never paid a oliar on either of them. Now, if Mary A. The wants this property, she can have it all, and also all property that is or was in my ands last April, at the time we separated, if he will pay all the debts we owed at that ime, and all debts that she has contracted ince, and discharge me from her and all the lebts in full. I will not keep as much as a lollar from her. All horses, harpess, wagons, attle and everything, she can have on these serms. Otherwise, I shall sell any and all property, to pay the debts.
